

Pro Nicola Gubernati

I was born in Biella, a small town in north-western Piedmont, and I started playing golf at the age of 12. During my amateur career, I competed in numerous regional and national tournaments, including participation in the Italian National Team Championships – Serie A1.

In 2012, I turned professional and completed my apprenticeship at the Paolo Quirici Golf School at Golf Club Lugano, where I currently teach. As a professional, I have competed in several Swiss PGA Tour events. From 2014 to 2021, I served as coach of the regional elite team for Swiss Golf.

I regularly attend continuing education seminars organized by the Swiss PGA and participate in international training programs. I have been a member of the Swiss PGA since 2012 (Class AA)

Since 2020, a Professional at the Lugano Golf Academy.

Interests

I have a strong passion for the mountains and winter sports. In my free time, I enjoy spending time between the mountains and golf courses in Switzerland. Each year, I take part in several Pro-Am tournaments between Switzerland and Italy.

My interests also include skiing, ski mountaineering, mountaineering, music, and film.
